RE: Board Appointment of New CEO at Property Valuation Services Corporation

On behalf of the Board of Directors of Property Valuation Services Corporation (PVSC), I share with you that Kathy Gillis, Chief Executive Officer, has announced her retirement after 17 years of exceptional service and leadership.

After a thorough CEO search and evaluation, supported by Royer Thompson, the Board has approved the appointment of Scott Farmer as PVSC's incoming CEO.

The Board is confident that Scott's experience in both the public and private sectors combined with his demonstrated leadership, enthusiasm for innovation, familiarity with policy development and legislation, and dedication to high performance and success aligns with PVSC's culture and will ensure the organization continues to deliver on its mandate, strategic plan, and industry leadership.

The Board is working closely with Kathy, Scott, and the PVSC executive team to prepare for a smooth transition, which will officially take place on September 30th.

Thanks,

Joseph Feeney
PVSC Board Chair
